City Fathers in Council—The House Light Guard—A New Departure—A Fiction.

Man Found Wounded and Bleeding. Accused of Hitting Himself—Some Testimony, Etc.

City Council.

A special meeting of the city council was held yesterday to consider the statement of a claim held by Rail & Mahoney against the Fort Worth Water-works company. The claim of Rail & Mahoney was for work done in constructing the foundation of the engine and pump house, for the price of which they had sued the old Fort Worth Water-works company.

The attorney for Rail & Mahoney submitted a proposition to the council to compromise the claim for $500 and costs of suit. This compromise was approved and recommended by the attorney for the city. The council passed a resolution authorizing the mayor to pay the sum of $500 to Rail & Mahoney and the costs of the suit.

A resolution to take up $5000 worth of the city's interest bearing bonds of the second series, now in the hands of S. S. Jamison & Co. of New York, financial agents of the city of Fort Worth, was also passed.

It was ordered that the interest on the water-works bonds, amounting to $250, be paid July 1, 1885.

Resolution passed that $1300 be transferred from the public building fund to the street fund to take up interest bearing notes. The council then adjourned.

Houston Light Guard.

The Houston Light Guard stopped over for breakfast in the city yesterday morning on their way to Philadelphia to attend the interstate drill. After breakfast the company went through the manual of arms on the platform of the Union depot. The company is thirty-six strong, and has a special Pullman sleeper decorated with banners bearing the inscription, "Houston Light Guard." The boys were all in fine spirits, and confident of victory at Philadelphia. The press represented in the party by that prince of good fellows, Hampton Cook of the Houston Post.

Nuptials.

Capt. J. H. Naugle and Miss Maude Joslin were happily united in the bonds of matrimony last evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Holloway at 8:30 at the residence of the bride's father, 1304 Throckmorton street, in the presence of a number of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. An elegant repast was served to the guests after the marriage had been solemnized. The newly married couple went off on the north-bound Missouri Pacific train on their wedding tour, which will be quite extended through the North and East.

Hit With a Hammer.

A fight occurred yesterday afternoon on Main street near Eighth, between Joe Anderson and A. Kent, a second-hand furniture dealer. The trouble grew out of a debt that one of the combatants claimed was due him from the other. Hard words led to hard blows and Anderson got himself picked on the head with a hammer, which weapon Kent made use of, and Anderson's head bled profusely, but he does not seem to be seriously damaged. Both of the men were arrested and placed under bond.

Funeral Notice.

The remains of Rutledge W. Garth, who was struck by lightning and instantly killed Tuesday evening on the Magnolia ranch, thirty miles north of Colorado City were brought to this city last night on the accommodation train from the west.

Mr. Garth was engaged in fixing up a wire fence at the time that he received the shock. It was thundering and lightning, but no rain was falling. He had fastened two strands together and had just stepped back to pick up the end of another which was lying on the ground. He fell dead the instant he grasped the wire which was evidently heavily charged with electricity. The deceased is the son of Mrs. M. P. Garth of this city.

The funeral services will take place today at 11 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church corner Fourth and Calhoun streets. The procession will form at the church. All the friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

A Singular Affair.

Yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock a man by the name of J. E. Spain, who resides with his family on East Bluff street, and is employed at the Merchants' restaurant, while on his way home was attacked and cut in two places by a man with whom he had previously had a difficulty about three months ago, but whose name he most persistently refuses to disclose.

He claims to have gone into the Tennessee saloon and taken a drink, was his custom every morning in passing from work, and that on leaving the saloon he walked up the street and turned into the alley running east and west through that block. That here he came suddenly upon his old enemy, who called him a terrible name and made for him with a knife. They scuffled for only an instant, when the fellow succeeded in cutting him and then walked off. He then went home, put on a clean shirt and, passing out his back way, went through Wear's boarding-house and told him of the stabbing, and thence he returned to the Tennessee saloon, took another drink and went into a back room, where he lay down and called for help, saying that he was struck. The men present went and examined him, but nothing of any weight was noticed on the left side, told him he was not hurt and went about their business. Shortly afterward he called again and officer Wither was sent for. He came at once, when another and more careful examination being made disclosed an ugly wound in the lower right side of the abdomen, from which he was bleeding profusely. By this time he had crawled at least moved out of the back door into the yard. He was taken up by the officer for the purpose, as he thought, of carrying him to the doctor, and when the officer turned the corner of Main and Second he thought he was being taken to Dr. Ansell's office. He was, however, taken to the calaboose and locked up on a charge of drunkenness, and it was some time thereafter before a physician was summoned to see him.

About 11 o'clock last night he was allowed bail and went immediately home to his family, where he was again seen by a GAZETTE reporter and reiterated briefly his previous statement as above.

The officers and men in the saloon at the time are of the opinion that he cut himself, notwithstanding the fact that no knife or weapon of any description was found upon his person or in the yard room in the vicinity of where he was. He claims to have taken but two drinks but the saloon man thinks he must have taken three or four altogether, although he says he was not drunk.

The Stephens Case Report.

As per agreement we reproduce herewith the evidence of a number of witnesses for both sides bearing upon the point at issue in this case. Ed Grounds, a witness for defendant, on direct testimony said:

Wallace jerked loose from me and I turned to face Stephens and saw him standing up. Turned back then to look at Wallace, who was running off, and Stephens said, "he has shot me—catch him." I broke to run after him.

C. R. Page, a witness for the state, on direct testimony said:

I saw the pistol shot by Dr. Wallace. I did not hear Stephens say anything; he was in the house and I was outside. A. J. Dukes, a witness for the state, on direct testimony said:

My place of business is across the street from where the difficulty was. I heard loud talking and finally a shot, and saw Dr. Wallace, who was near or in the door. The next I saw of him he was in the street running. Dr. Stephens, the defendant, was pursuing and firing at him. They were going south.

Joe A. Stewart a witness for the state on direct testimony said:

I could not tell whether Stephens was on the porch or ground near porch when the pistol fired. Dr. Wallace was moving rapidly in the direction of home pursued by Dr. Stephens at some 10, 12 or may be 14 steps distance. Stephens pursued and fired a second shot while W. was still going in the direction of home.

Rev. A. S. Hayter, a witness for defendant in his direct testimony said: I let go of Stephens and jumped back out of the way and Wallace fired. Stephens immediately exclaimed: "I'm hit! Catch him, for he has hit me!"

In connection herewith we would say that a reporter for THE GAZETTE called upon the county attorney for his opinion as to the fairness and impartiality of THE GAZETTE's report of the case.

He said that he had read THE GAZETTE's report and found no error therein as to the evidence adduced.

The district clerk was then seen, who after carefully reading, said that he had found nothing wrong in the report of THE GAZETTE.

The judge presiding was then seen, and his statement was in substance the same as that of the clerk and the county attorney, to the effect that he thought it a very fair and just statement, and in accordance with the law and the evidence.

Freight Wrecked.

A freight train was derailed on the Santa Fe railroad four miles south of this city night before last. The wreck was caused by the breaking of an axle.

Six cars were derailed, besides the caboose, in which there were about twenty passengers, all of whom were well shaken up, but no one seriously hurt. The track was cleared in a few hours and the passenger train from the south was not delayed.

DALLAS.

An Ice-Cream Parlor Guttered by the Midnight Flames—The Central Road to Build a Tap.

Two Little Girls Make a Meal on Fly Poison—Directors of the Trunk Railway in Secret Session.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., June 25.—About 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out in Tololowsky's confectionary store, and the damage therefrom amounted to about five or six thousand dollars. The origin of the fire was peculiar. A fancy piece of fly paper fell on a lamp and the fire quickly ran up to the paper on the ceiling and thence to the curtains and other light material of the establishment. It is an ice-cream parlor, etc. The fire department turned out and most of the damage is from water. The building is somewhat burned but not seriously. The insurance was for about three thousand dollars.

A little girl named Kittie Potter, aged four years, living on North Pearl street, yesterday evening got hold of some fly poison and ate it. She had with her a companion, a little daughter of Mrs. Moffitt, who also indulged in the poison. The physicians fortunately arrived in time to save their lives, though they were very dangerously affected.

No inquest has yet been held on the body of Mrs. Oliver, the lady who died under such peculiar circumstances on Tuesday night, and the cause of her death is yet a mystery.

The directors of the Trunk railroad met yesterday evening, but they are quiet as to the business transacted. The Trunk road is advertised for sale on the 7th of July and is now in charge of the sheriff. It is said the meeting yesterday was for the purpose of raising money among the stockholders to pay off the indebtedness. The judgment is for $140,000.

The body of Charles F. Smith, the young man killed by the train a few days ago, was embalmed and shipped to his relatives at Defiance, Ohio, today.

Mr. Hand, the mechanical man of the Galveston News, arrived today from the North, whence he went to buy press, type, etc. He comes to superintend the construction of the building, etc., into which the paper is to move. The building is to be ready by the 15th of September.

The election of school superintendent of the public schools by the school board resulted in Prof. Stamberry of Brenham carrying off the prize. The following is the list of the aspirants for the place: W. A. Bolles, Dallas; R. Stamberry, Brenham; E. Hunter, Indiana; J. R. Malone, Dallas; J. W. Edmunds, Denison; W. M. Rivers, Cleburne; A. Z. W. Begg, Cananda; J. M. Shelton, Missouri; and C. A. Bryant, Calvert. The salary is $1500 per annum.

The Texas Central railroad offered to build a tap from Hutchins to Lancaster provided the people of the latter place would give five thousand dollars and the right of way. The distance is only ten miles. The money and right of way have been secured and the Central has been told to come on with its road.

ATLANTA.

A Lumber Mill Filched from Jefferson.

Special to the Gazette.

ATLANTA, TEX., June 25.—The proposition submitted by the Jefferson Lumber company to our people was formally accepted today.

The company will begin at once to remove its immense saw-mill business to this place and will also begin the construction of a railroad from this point westward. It is expected that the railroad will be extended via Mt. Pleasant to Sherman in the near future. This enterprise is a great accession to our city, and while Atlanta has been on a boom for more than a year she is now on a big boom. Property is advancing and capital is seeking investment here. Our population is increasing, which we expect will be doubled in the next six months.

HONEY GROVE.

A Church Concert and Festival—Other Notes.

Special to the Gazette.

HONEY GROVE, TEX., June 25.—The ladies gave a concert at the opera-house last evening in the interest of the Episcopal church. An immense crowd was in attendance. The programme consisted of music, recitations and songs, which were well rendered and highly appreciated. They had on hand for sale ice cream, sherbet, cakes and fruits. This department was so well patronized that about $50 were realized. This will be appropriated to the building of a rectory for the Episcopal church.

Prof. E. E. Bramlette and wife of Austin, en route for Tennessee on a visit, stopped off here yesterday to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

The revival at the Christian church still continues.

The Honey Grove Land and Cattle company has elected J. T. Holt, president; B. O. Walcott, vice-president, and T. U. Cole, secretary and treasurer. The cattle shipped by the company last week have reached their ranch at Toyah in good condition.

THORP'S SPRING.

Satisfactory Scholastic Year in Hood County—Other Notes.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

THORP'S SPRING, TEX., June 25.—The closing exercises of the Add Ran and Granbury colleges are concluded, and the friends of each are pleased and satisfied. The scholastic year has been a great success in Hood county. Each school is well patronized and is growing in influence and importance. The great majority of the students in the various schools seem intent upon learning, and no complaints have ever been made of any ill conduct.

Judge Nugent and lady were lately guests at the Milliken house.

Miss Annie Shapard of our county, who was recently graduated at Hendrix, arrived home a few days since. Miss Annie was awarded a silver medal and the valedictory.

Our well-known Sulphur spring, with its cool and palatable medicinal waters, is coming again into demand as the warm days of summer approach. The spring-house has been repaired for the convenience and comfort of visitors. A number of young men from Dallas, with an elegant outfit, are now encamped at the spring.

The "On to Brownwood" funds a response here. All admit that our section cannot be fully developed until the road is built. Hurry it up. Let us have some of its benefits at the spring.

The health of the country is good.

LONGVIEW, TEX., June 25.—An itinerant photographer is arrested here for refusing to work the streets. A state senator from Will's Point assaults one of the prominent citizens of this city—and no arrest is made. The common people are wondering why the difference in respect of persons.

WAXAHACHIE.

The Citizens' Committee Still at Work on the Fort Worth & New Orleans Subsidy.

Work of the First State Sunday-School Convention of the Christian Church—A Murderer Pardoned.

Special to the Gazette.

WAXAHACHIE, TEX., June 25.—A company has been organized and a charter proposed for an oil mill to be constructed at once at Waxahachie, with a capital stock of $40,000. The citizens of Waxahachie are the incorporators.

A. J. Bronson, who was sentenced to the penitentiary from this county in 1877 for twenty-five years for killing Dougherty, has been pardoned and has returned to Ellis county. He was drunk when the crime was committed, but he now says he will never put his head inside of a saloon again.

Some miscreant threw a brickbat through the window of J. L. Cooper's house at Grove Creek Sunday night, while he was in bed asleep, and inflicted a wound in the back of his head.

The Waxahachie district conference of the M. E. church, South, will convene here July 9.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a musical tea party and ice-cream festival to-morrow night on the lawn near the Masonic hall.

The taxable property of Waxahachie, as shown by the assessment rolls, amounts to $40,808.

The railroad committee is still at work on the Fort Worth & New Orleans railway subsidy. Some of our moneyed men still refuse to contribute toward the enterprise, but we still hope a sufficient sum can be raised to secure the road. Fort Worth ought to receive a portion of the $400,000 trade that annually goes to Dallas from this county.

The State Sunday-school convention of the Christian church was in session here for two days and adjourned to-night. Many prominent ministers and many members of the church were in attendance. Messrs. Cline of Kentucky, Jones of Tennessee, Abney of Lampasas, Tex., Wilmet of Thorp Springs and Bagby of Ennis were among the members. C. McPherson of Waxahachie was elected president, K. A. Abney of Lampasas vice-president and A. S. Henry of Blooming Grove secretary. The necessity for cooperative Sunday-school work was discussed in an interesting manner by Messrs. Abney, Bagby, Wilmet, McPherson, Pangton, Oakleaf, Jones and others. The discussion waxed warm, but those favoring state co-operation were decidedly in the ascendancy, both as to numbers and weight of argument. Another warm and interesting discussion arose over the question of permanent organization, some of the delegates favoring the relegating of the state Sunday-school co-operative question to the Texas State meeting, which convenes in Sherman, August 5. The majority vote was again postponed.

On Wednesday night, after an earnest appeal from Mr. Abney the various Sunday-schools represented in the convention, assisted by a few individuals, pledged the sum of $259.50 for the advancement of Sunday-school work. Many questions of interest were discussed by the convention and eloquent essays were read by Mrs. O. C. Todd of Thorp's Spring. This is the first state Sunday-school convention of the Christian church and the work now inaugurated will no doubt greatly advance the cause. The next meeting will be at Dallas in June, 1886.

KYLE.

A Young Man Drowned—A Pioneer Dead.

The body was recovered after three hours' diving and dragging. The deceased was the only survivor of a family of four who moved to this section from Mississippi last fall, the rest having died from sudden causes. He was twenty-one years of age, and expected to return to Mississippi in a few days.

C. L. Adcock, an old and respected citizen, died yesterday after a lingering spell of sickness and was interred in the city cemetery this evening.

BIG SPRING.

A Word About One of the Thriving Towns of the West.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

BIG SPRING, TEX., June 24.—Howard county is settling up very rapidly with a very substantial class of citizens. The land here is much better than one would naturally suppose from just riding through the country on the Texas & Pacific, for, unfortunately, the railroad runs through the poorest portion of the county.

At present, the raising of stock, mostly cattle and sheep, is the leading pursuit, but more and more land is being brought into cultivation each year. Several stock farms have been opened for the purpose of breeding fine stock.

Big Spring is the county seat, and ranks among the most thriving towns of the West. The business portion of the town lies along the railroad and can readily be seen from the cars, but the residence portion lies over the hill south of the railroad, and cannot be seen except by going to the top of the hill. A very neat court-house ornaments the public square, and several very substantial business houses have been built within the past year, and others are under contract.

Big Spring enjoys one source of revenue that no other town west of Fort Worth enjoys. The railroad machine shops are here and the day car distributes from $15,000 to $20,000 in the town each month. This is a revenue of no mean importance to a small town. The passenger trains stop here to dine in passing each way. This is another nice little source of revenue.

Special to the Gazette.

ABILENE, TEX., June 25.—Several large shipments of cattle have gone out of Abilene in the last few days. Several hundred head are now waiting to be shipped. Cattle are fat and the range is fine.

Tuesday's west-bound passenger train was delayed four hours because of a wreck near Eastland. The tender and engine jumped the track, leaving the coaches on. Both were damaged. All persons thereon escaped uninjured. The passenger going east returned to Abilene, while a train from the east took the wrecked train back to the Fort.

The third annual convention of the Commercial Travelers' Protective association of the United States began at Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday. Several hundred delegates are present.

That such is the case is evidenced by her numerous railroads, her public improvements, her manufactures now in operation and in process of erection, and the indomitable courage and never-ceasing energy of her citizens. She booms, and while such is the solid fact it should not be forgotten that John Hoffman, of the Merchant's Exchange, is always abreast of the times and now offers to our amusement seekers something not only rare, but in reality a genuine novelty and treat to those who shall avail themselves of this opportunity. He has secured the services of Haas Lechner's troupe of Tyrolean Warblers to appear at his house, 405 Houston street, to-night. In addition, the music is superb, the attention always polite and courteous and the bar is supplied with everything of the very best. Be sure and call around to-night and hear some good music and excellent singing. On with the boom!
